Ghirass cultural center organized a celebration for 250 children and parents to party the end of this year’s summer camp. In her keynote speech, Miss Ibtisam Zghayar welcomed all the participants and offered her congratulations to them for the great work they all had produced. Several plays, songs and other performances were made at the stage of Ghirass. The center also organized a small exhibition displaying the art, handicrafts and designs which the children made of recycled material.