Twenty people, including the Mayor of Aubervilliers, three deputy mayors, the administrative director, the director of disability and the internationally known violinist Florence Malgoire visited BASR as part of their official visit to Beit Jala on the occasion of the cultural festival for peace cities and for the 100 year anniversary of Beit-Jala municipality. The delegation was introduced to the services and programs that BASR offers to the Palestinian people. BASR constantly strives to build a national and international network of supporters and it is glad that people from Aubervilliers have joined its network of friends and supporters.
