An inclusive society that promotes equality and respect of diversity and offers its citizens dignified life opportunities.

In order to achieve the described vision, BASR works on three dimensions: empowerment and capacity building, rendering rehabilitative services for people with disabilities, and providing specialized health care services to the Palestinian community.